CHINESE ARRESTED AFTER LONG CHASE

Officers Take Waiters Away During Dinner Hour.

COULDN'T PRESENT PASSPORTS

One Believed to Have Been Smuggled Into Monumental City, and All Are Suspected of Violating Immigration Laws—Declare They Entered Country at San Francisco.

Charged with violation of the immigration law, Wong Lung, Ching Shun, Low Hen, and Wan Shue, waiters, employed at a restaurant in Ninth street, were last night arrested by Inspector Baldwin, of Baltimore, and E. L. Turner, deputy United States Marshal.

The celestials were in the midst of a rush at supper time when the officers entered the place in search of Wong Lung, who has been in this country but a short time. He is alleged to have entered the country by way of Baltimore.

Wong Lung was summoned to the hall-way by Inspector Baldwin and asked to produce his passport and other entrance papers. His papers had been left in Baltimore, he explained, and after much questioning he could not remember how long he had been in the United States, or just where his papers were to be found. While the examination of Wong Lung was going on the three other Chinamen gathered about and appeared intensely interested in the matter.

Asked Others for Papers. Apparently satisfied that Wong Lung was the man for whom he has been searching for several months, Inspector Baldwin turned to the other waiters and requested them to show their papers.

The look of vagueness that made the inspector inquisitive vanished from the features of the three Celestials, and they took a long time in informing him their papers were in New York or San Francisco.

Ching Shun, Low Hen, and Wan Shue claim to be members of the Chinese Reform Association, and assert they came to Washington from New York two years ago. Charlie Bing, the proprietor of the restaurant, affirmed their statements, but he could not vouch for the authenticity of the replies made by Wong Lung. The customers in the dining-room were forgotten in the heart-to-heart talk with the detective, and without ceremony the four were marched downstairs, where Policemen Mansfield, Hixson, and McPherson, of the First precinct, were waiting. Led by Inspector Baldwin, the little band walked to the police station, and the disconsolate-looking Orientals were placed in one cell and denied bail.

Hearing This Morning. A hearing will be given the prisoners before United States Commissioner Anson Taylor this morning. It is expected Attorney William E. Ambrose will represent the Chinese on behalf of the reform association.

The immigration authorities have been seeking for Wong Lung since he was supposed to have been smuggled into the port of Baltimore three or four months ago. A lookout was at first posted in New York City, and police men were detailed by the Bureau of Immigration to find a number of Chinamen who are supposed to have been illegally passed into the country at the same time. Inspector Baldwin did not contemplate the arrest of the three companions of Wong Lung when he came to this city. It is possible efforts to round up all Chinamen in Washington who have not the necessary papers will result from his discovery last night.

When seen at the First precinct the youthful prisoners refused to discuss their arrest, and would only say they entered the country by way of San Francisco.

NEGROES ARE CONVICTED.

Two Men Said to Have Taken $1,700 Worth of Jewelry from Store.

Eugene O. Askins and Samuel Osborne, negroes, were found guilty yesterday in Criminal Court No. 1, before Justice Gould, of housebreaking and larceny. They were remanded to jail to await sentence.

Assistant United States Attorney Turner, who appeared for the government, showed that the two negroes stole $1,700 worth of jewelry from the store of Abraham L. Saltzstein, 741-1/2 Ninth street northwest. The arrests were made by central office detectives Burlington and Howlett.

In court yesterday the defendants tried to shoulder the blame on Richard Osborne, alias Frank Smith, alias Patrick Murphy, who has not been located by the police.

Funeral Rites Held.

Funeral services for Mrs. Owen Owen were held at the residence, 1715 Kilbourne place northwest, yesterday afternoon. Rev. T. E. Davi officiating. Interment was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

STRICT MILK REGULATIONS.

Dr. Woodward Makes Announcement Following Appeal in Court. After the appeal from the conviction of Marion E. Burrows, a Maryland policeman, on the charge of selling milk in Washington without the necessary permit, was taken, Health Officer Woodward made the announcement that the milk regulations would be enforced as strictly as ever.

The bases of the appeal is that the pure food law supersedes the act of Congress, which required dairymen to obtain permits from the health department before selling milk.

"The health department is not concerned about the outcome of the case," said Dr. Woodward, "and in the meantime the regulations will be strictly enforced. The effect of a reversal from the decision of the Police Court, would permit the introduction into the District of impure and unclean milk. The better class of dairymen are satisfied with the present regulations."

Reasons for Buying Selz Royal Blue Shoes for Men.

There isn't room to give all the reasons for buying Selz shoes; the chief one is this: You get with every pair a positive guarantee that you will be satisfied with the fit, the wear, and the style. That's about all anybody wants of shoes—or of anything else, for that matter—satisfaction.

"Breaking in" a shoe is not only hard on you, but it's bad for the shoe; and it's a sign of poor fit, and always unnecessary. If you put your feet into a Selz Royal Blue shoe that's the proper width and length, it will fit. Selz shoes are made on scientific measurements; they fit feet. No two pairs of feet are just alike; but no two pairs of feet are very different, either. That's one reason why Selz Footform last fits perfectly so many feet. It's made on a scientific model which conforms most perfectly to the general average. If you want to know the comfort and satisfaction of a shoe that is easy from the first minute, ask us for Selz Royal Blue, Footform last.

Selz Royal Blue Shoes Are Being Shown in Over 60 Styles.

STREET CLEANERS BUSY.

Twentieth Century Club Thinks Covered

Receptacles Needed.

The cleaner city crusade is to be pushed by the Twentieth Century Club, according to resolutions which it has sent to the District Commissioners. They request that a police regulation be promulgated which will compel contractors to supply covered receptacles for waste paper thrown aside by their workmen.

The idea has been approved by Maj. Sylvester, superintendent of police, who thinks that a large waste basket used by contractors working on the streets and parkings would remedy a long-standing evil.

Superintendent Wood, of the street cleaning department, is not so favorably inclined toward the regulation. He says he is trying to solve the problem without additional legislation.

Sues for Divorce.

Kate Hodgkin brought suit in the District Supreme Court yesterday for limited divorce from John N. Hodgkin. She says that within a year after their marriage in Baltimore, on November 27, 1906, her husband deserted her, and since then has contributed little or nothing to the support of her and a daughter, two years old. Through her attorney, J. W. Nichol, Mrs. Hodgkin asks legal separation, alimony, and the custody of the child.

The Only Certain Remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all Stomach Troubles

NOURRILEAN

THE GREAT DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

(Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30th, 1906)

NOURRILEAN DOES THE BUSINESS CERTAINLY AND QUICKLY

Nothing in it to hurt even a child. No family should be without NOURRILEAN—when wanted it's wanted quickly and acts quickly to relieve Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Etc.

This is the Short Story of a Big Cleveland Manufacturer.

(Name and address given by mail on request)

He was laid up for months with aggravated dyspepsia or indigestion—unable to leave his room. He thought it was about all things for him. A Chicago friend sent him a box of Nourrilean while the doctor was still tinkering with his case. In a week he wrote his friend: "I feel like singing Hallelujahs to you this morning. Nourrilean has done the business for me." A month later he went to Chicago, gave a royal dinner, partook royally himself, and was his old hearty self again. He is one of Nourrilean's most enthusiastic advocates, and always carries the capsules in his pocket for the relief of his friends.

It contains no artificial digester, no alcohol, no opium, no calomel, no strychnine or other poisonous drug, and is absolutely free from all narcotics. The U. S. Government would prohibit our use of the mail if this were not so. Do not accept a substitute. There is nothing like it—nothing that will produce the same result. When necessary it will be sent direct by mail.
